Foreword

— V —

VICTORY is a word on the lips and in the minds of each American. It may be victory on the basketball floor, victory in the church, scholastic victory, and finally but not the least important is the military victory. Since it is such an important word, the 1942-1943 Etonian should like to use Victory as its theme. Give it whatever significance you would like and you will have a book that you may cherish.

ETONIAN

Dedication

*T*HE Etonian Staff unanimously agreed to dedicate our fifteenth edition of the Etonian to President A. C. Baugher.

President Baugher has faithfully served his Alma Mater since 1917 when he was graduated. In 1922 he took the position of Professor of Chemistry and Physics. In 1928 Dr. Baugher dropped the physics end and took the Deanship while keeping his Chemistry post. This was Dr. Baugher's status until he became President.

We hope, Dr. Baugher, that we, the first class to be graduated during your administration, may do you honor in all ways possible.

President's Message

— V —

WE are living in a time in the world's history which will likely be recorded as a period of change if not revolution. To live through such a time one is tempted to be over-impressed with the immediate. History cannot be judged by a single event nor even by a chain of events which take place over a relatively short stretch of years. History cannot be properly evaluated by anyone who gives too great a place to what has happened during the past ten years and to what is happening today. The history of mankind covers millenia. Consequently, to get a reliable perspective one needs to take into account the general trend of events covering hundreds and even thousands of years.

Slowly but certainly the great caravan of humanity moves on and upward. In the present decade we seem to be traveling across a burning desert. Progress is difficult. The events of this decade tempt one to think that we have turned and are again moving backward into the centuries of darkness and brutality. But a deep faith in God's mankind should give us an abiding assurance that across the present hot desert sands lies not a mirage, but a new day.

To you who are about to complete your college education, you have the buoyance of youth. Although we are now living through days of difficulties, be assured that the dawn of a new day will follow. The challenges and the opportunities that will come with the dawn will be infinitely greater than anything that mankind has experienced.

I earnestly trust that you may have the courage, the bravery, the strength, and the purity to meet this challenge when it comes.

Yours sincerely

LOIS ANDERSON

Choir 4

"The friends that we cherish as finest and truest aren't always the oldest." is especially appropriate for Lois because she only joined our E-town family this last semester—West Chester used to claim her. Nevertheless her pleasant personality, conscientiousness, musical ability, and wholesome attitude has made us glad that we were given an opportunity to know this elementary teacher.

SUZANNE BOLTON

Sock and Buskin 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 3, 4; Etonian Staff 3, 4; Class Treas. 4

Sue, our "Seashore maiden" came to us last year from Bucknell University. And where would our many good times be if it weren't for Sue. She's always ready for fun. Her heart is so big and made of gold. We all wish you well, Sue.

HARRY BERBERIAN

Fire Chief 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2; Sigma Kappa Xi 4; Sock and Buskin 2, 3, Pres. 4
Etonian Staff, Bus. Mgr. 4; Pres. of Class 4

Hear that Siren! That's Harry out on another ambulance call. Harry has been a faithful member of our class. He led it through its last year which was a stormy year, to say the least. He's never afraid to express his opinion, no matter what it be. Wit is his constant companion. We'll all call on you, Harry, when you put up your shingle. You deserve a lot of credit for all you've done in these last years and we know you'll get it.

JANET BOYD

Etonian Staff, Ed. 4; Etownian Staff 1, 2, 3, Ed. 4; Sock and Buskin 2, 3, V.-Pres. 4;
Sigma Zeta 2, Sec.-Treas. 3; Sigma Kappa Xi 4; Choir 3

Janet, who is one of the cheery spots in our class, has been chosen Valedictorian. She has proven to be a talented actress and a capable editor of the yearbook and newspaper. She seems to have no lack of vitality, for you can see her running here and there over campus attending to her many activities. Janet will be one of the few women science teachers in Lancaster County. We sure wish you luck wherever you may be.

RUFUS DOUPLE

Commerciantes 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4

As an ardent golfer Rufus has taught the men on campus many techniques in this field. Although he did bid us adieu at the end of the first semester, his friendship has made a lasting impression with us all. We wish you all the success one can achieve in the vocation which you have chosen.

MARTHA BUCHER

Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 4; Choir 2, 4; Student Volunteers 1, 2

Mart always has a cheerful smile, a kind word, and is always ready to help wherever she is needed. She is very studious, too, but believes that a little nonsense, now and then, is relished by the best of people. Martha, we wish you success and happiness in all you do.

ELWOOD FAUTH

Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Council 1, Sec. 2, Pres. 4; Commerciantes 1, 2, 3, 4; Photography Club Sec. 4; Student Senate 4; Etownian Staff 2; Etonian Staff 4; I. R. C. 1, 2; Student Volunteers 1

Fauth is our business-like classmate. He is always as neat as a pin. His pleasant smile has won him many friends. Photography has taken much of his time. In the commercial field we can assure whomever it may concern that they are fortunate in securing his services.

OLIVER FOSS

Orchestra 4

Oliver has been with us only this year, but he has made a lasting impression on us, nevertheless. His art is much to be admired. His gracious manner makes him very attractive to many people. Good luck, Foss!

Gibble is one of our small students, but only in stature. His ways have created a memory in the hearts of all on campus so that he will ever be remembered. His ability in his field—commercial—is beyond reproach. As a teacher he will surely be successful. Keep up the good, hard work.

HENRY GLADE

Henry came to our campus last year. He is quiet and reserved but he has still won a permanent place in our hearts. His intellectuality is without an equal on campus. His words are all full of deep meaning, and hung upon by every student, as few are. Henry, you may be sure that each and every one of us in the class of '42 wishes you the best of luck and we are certain of your success in whatever you take up, for your effort rates in the class of excellence.

BETTY GROVE

Commerciantes 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 3, 4

Two and a half years ago, Betty came to E-Town from Temple University. Her goals were twofold: success and teaching. She has reached both, for during the last two or three months Betty has been teaching in Mt. Joy and has been a very successful teacher. Betty has a magic personality, keen determination, and with her "Frank-ness" we predict success.

ALMA HERR

Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Comerciantes 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir 1, 2, 3; Orchestra 4

Alma is that blithe forward who helped the girls' basketball team to so many victories, this year. Always smiling, always willing, Alma is a Queen fit for a King.

SARA HERR

Varsity Basketball 1, 2; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, Sec. 3, Pres. 4; Student Senate;
Commerciantes 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Sec. 2, 4

Sara is one of the most industrious and efficient girls on our campus. She has proved her efficiency as president of the Y. W. She is always willing to help others and assist in anything she is called upon to do. She will succeed, we all know, by her vim and vigor. Sara proudly displays the third finger of her left hand and holds the honor of being the first of our class to display such an article.

HAZEL HUTCHINSON

Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Volunteers 1, 2, 3, 4

Hazel comes to us after three and a half years of helping to prepare American children to participate in the democratic process. Seriousness, thoroughness, and vigor mark her work as a student and as a teacher. On the campus she has displayed an attitude of cooperation and helpfulness. Who does not enjoy her hearty laughter?

STEWART KAUFFMAN

Student Volunteers 1, 2, 4; Ministerium 2, 3; Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 4; Sock and Buskin 2, 4;
Candles 2, 4; Choir 1, 2, 4

Stewart, a minister who drives an "evangelistic" Ford, is the lone star representative of his profession in the class of '42. He has also proved himself an excellent vocalist, dramatist, and leader. With his conscientious and sincere efforts, and pleasing personality he cannot fail to succeed in every activity of life.

ERNEST LEFEVER

Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Volunteers 1, 2, 3, 4; Ministerium 2, 3, 4; Candles 2, 3, 4;
I. R. C. Pres. 2, 3, 4; Etownian 1, 2, 3; Pres. of Sophomore Class

Leadership and scholarship are two of Ern's outstanding characteristics. He has travelled over many states and has a good idea as to how the American people live. We welcome him into our class and know he will succeed in his vocation whatever it may be.

This calm quiet girl has become a friend, cherished by all. Her sense of humor will carry her through many a difficulty. We know her as librarian, waitress, and as an ardent Student Volunteer worker. From her success in all things here we know she is just as successful as a school marm.

MELANIE POLLACK

Transfer from Temple University

A day student with ambitions similar to a man's. By her skill and adaptability, we know Mel will be more than a success in her capacity as a doctor. She will more than likely speed through "med" school like a meteor. Here's to you, Mel!

GARLAND RITZ

Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Photography Club 4; I. R. C. 2, 3; Student Volunteers 1; Etonian Staff 4; Sigma Kappa Xi 4; Student Council 4

Ritz is the big boy of our class. He hails from York County. Whenever any boys need a rub down or any first aid they always go to Doc. He is also very much interested in snapping candid. Generosity is his middle name. Lots of luck, Garland!

RUTH ROYER

Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 4; Student Volunteers 4; Choir 1, 2, 4; Student Council 4; Etonian Ed. 4; Student Senate 4

Mischievous, full of fun, and friendly is Ruth to a "T." Her talent in art makes her an asset to E. C. Her previous teaching experience has helped much in her extracurricular activities. Letter writing was her chief hobby during the second semester. Our best wishes follow you, Ruth!

Although Ruth remained with us only one semester this year we did learn to know her through her cheery visage. Her musical ability was one of her outstanding features. Ruth, we know you will always manage well, no matter what you do, since you put all you've got into everything you do.

KENNETH SHAFFER

Y. M. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Sigma Zeta 3; Etonian 4; Etownian 3; Student Senate, Pres. 4; Student Council 3; Photography Club 4

Kenny is one of the most active members of our class. As president of the student organization he was quite busy. "A really swell fellow" describes Kenny. School children don't know what a treat is in store for them when they have Kenny for a teacher. Good luck, you deserve it!

RUTH SHAW

Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Student Volunteers 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercialtes 2, 3, 4; Sock and Buskin 2, 3, Sec. 4; Student Council 4; Orchestra 4

I'm sho yo all agree that Maryland University's loss of this attractive southern belle was E-town's gain. Ruth's conscientiousness has proven her to be an asset and an efficient leader in many campus organizations. Her keen wit and joviality can always keep a crowd in that "never a dull moment" atmosphere. All summed up, Ruth is "sho nuff" a swell person.

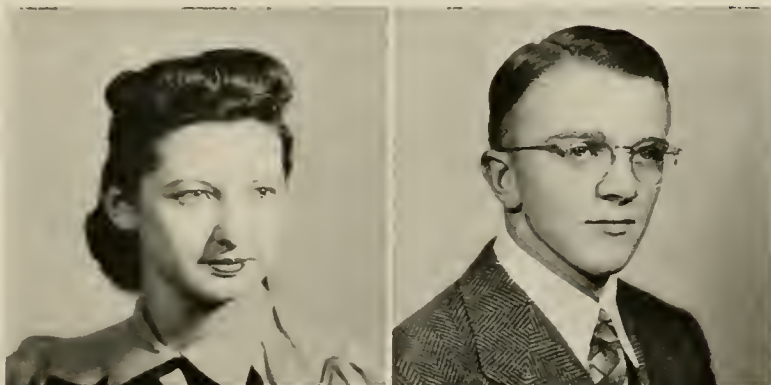

ALLAN WEBSTER

Photography Club 4; Sigma Kappa Xi 4; Y. M. C. A. 3, 4

Allan is one of those students who entered our class by taking extra work in order to finish early. He is a credit to have in any class, so we welcome him with open arms. In the "lab" there is no compare. And a good chemist is in the making we're sure. Good luck Noahy!

OUR BOYS

Second Lieutenant

HARRY HORNING

A fellow who always had the army in his heart. Harry took R. O. T. C. in the first years of his career, down at Drexel. He came to E-town to give us a break. But he found no contentment until he could enlist. We're proud to give to the cause one of our able classmates, although there's a spot in our ranks that can't be filled by any old doughboy.

— V —

Sergeant

WILLIAM KNIGHT

With the desire to be a doctor at any cost, Red killed two birds with one stone, serving his country and still following his ambitions in the medical corps. Our choir had to secure two men to dig into the deep notes Red could so easily produce. Slightly camera-shy, we had no means of producing here a likeness of our friend, so this is our feeble means of recognition to you, Red. Best of luck.

— V —

Sergeant

EUGENE SHIRK

The only ones who apparently appreciate Beanie's absence are our rival teams. And if he can frighten our enemies as easily we'll be having peace right soon; for our opponents were defeated the minute Beanie stepped on the mound or on the basketball floor. If hand grenades come into use, Beanie will still be our star pitcher. We felt sure Beanie would head for the Navy with previous success in finding a girl in every port waiting for him.

— V —

Second Lieutenant

WILBUR RAFFENSBERGER

"Raffy" was our "Little King." Always doing big things around campus, he's still doing them in the air. No team was complete—soccer, baseball or basketball—without Wilb. With Raffy's grim determination in sports we're positive our loss is Uncle Sam's gain.

GEORGE ALTHOUSE

Soccer 1, 2, Co-captain 3; J. V. Basketball 1, 2; V. Basketball 3; Baseball 1, 2, 3

Coming from sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch stock, George had little difficulty in becoming our four-letter man—basketball, baseball, soccer, and ping-pong. Good-natured, generous, “Chaplin” for freshman-initiation-violators, teller of jokes, and a general good friend to everyone have made him a person comfortable to be around. We know George will be able to contribute greatly to the German and Athletic departments of the school system he enters.

DOROTHY BAUGHER

Dot's friendliness and comradeship endear her to all her associates. Being an enthusiastic participant in activities on the hill, supplemented by an attractive personality, she has won a deserving place in our hearts. Dot's interest in commercial education indicates a future “chuck-full” of fun, adventure, and success.

Industry, ability, and cheerfulness have made the “Rote Kup” of our class a leader on the campus. Since being a “Frosh” Erma has excelled in athletics, and we are especially thrilled to remember her skill and prowess on the basketball court. An efficient, sincere, and enthusiastic student—perfect qualifications for a class helmsman. To Erma—the best of success.

Harold is a true and congenial friend, busy, energetic, and ambitious, with a personality as versatile as his interests—and these are many—poetry writing, archeology, travel, radio, astronomy, psychology, sociology, and above all the ministry. Each day of his life is a link of new hope, threaded with a reliable character, headed with deeds of kindness, and colored with his appreciation for the little things in life that contribute toward making each day—for himself and others—worth living. Endowed with unusual leadership, secretarial and athletic ability, few interests escape the scope of her activity. At no time is her activity greater than around a "Friday."

JEAN DAUM

Choir 1, 2, 3; Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3

Another one of those elusive day students that can never be found when wanted. Jean drives religiously (?) from Columbia to E-town everyday. She is preparing for the Elementary field and will, we know, be a great success. Her voice is a constant marvel to those who hear her sing and we might say, "She hath a way to sing so clear, Phoebus might wondering stop to hear."

EVELYN DEIMLER

Esther, a friend to all, is one of our quietly modest, sincere classmates. Although she is a diligent and conscientious student, she is always packed full of fun. With her high scholastic attainment and pleasing personality we know Esther will succeed as an elementary teacher.

LILLIE MAE GUMPHIER

Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3; Commercial 1, 2, 3; Choir 2; Sock and Buskin 2, 3; Etownian Assoc. Editor 3; Etonian 3; Student Senate, Sec. 3

Here, indeed, do we have the "Lily" of our class—quiet, modest and beautiful. Whether in the classroom, the library, as Assistant Editor of the Etownian, or on the rifle range—and on and on including all her other interests and hobbies—she excels. Friendly, lovely, a swell sport, and intelligent conversationalist and an interesting listener—her friends are many, and her talent, efficiency, and determination leave us in no doubt concerning her future.

An appreciation and love of nature and the outdoors, and a strong inclination toward sports, might well cast her in the role of the "all-round" girl.

JOAN HARRIES

Y. W. C. A. 1, 2, 3; Choir 1, 2; Student Senate 2

We are proud to claim this charming Welsh girl as our classmate. Joan seemed quiet at first but when we learned to know her, we found that she has a bag of tricks and jokes which cause much laughter and fun. With her ability and cheerful personality, we know that she will always have many friends and be successful as an elementary teacher.

ETHEL HEISEY

Ethel has won her many friends by her attractive manner, friendly smile and wit. Ever faithful to her task, with her sincerity and ability, she cannot fail to succeed in life because the word defeat is not in her vocabulary. She will be remembered by her beautiful voice which has proved to be a definite asset to the A Cappella Choir.

Long, lean, and lanky—always neat, always ready, with a friendly greeting—that's Doc. Versatile, with a keen interest in business, basketball, tennis, and the fairer sex. Doc is sure to have no difficulty in making a name for himself.

Not infrequently does there burst forth from the "cleric's lobby" an inimitable cascade of lusty, shrill, treble, staccato-like laughter, immediately recognizable by all. Often Harvey may be seen trudging back-and-forth to College. Usually jocund, this theologian of indefatigable persistence, can discourse with great perspicuity. If you should meet him on "argumentum ad hominem" terms, he can unleash his ready tongue and launch into verbal tirades which are frequently punctuated by acrimonious remarks. He can cajole with equal facility. Nevertheless, Harvey, scholarly cleric, from the rolling Lebanon Valley, with his financial and religious acumen, ably demonstrated by his service to the Volunteers, may be confidently assured of future pastoral success.

RUTH KREIDER

Choir 3; Sock and Buskin 3; Volunteers 3; Y. W. C. A. 3

Quiet, unassuming, friendly, industrious, and sympathetic, Ruth came to us from Lebanon Valley College, to be the Jane Addams of our class. Interested in peace, relief and a better world, a work camper, cross-country traveler, and migrant authority, with her heart of gold, ready wit and sincerity, she has won a lasting place in our hearts. The world needs more people like Ruth!

"A local boy makes good" is an act seldom achieved, but "Porky's" doing it and there is no stopping him. When Paul undertakes a task, he has a determination to see the work completed. "Pork" has a sense of humor and is known for his kindly smile to every one. In sports he is especially outstanding. This year he has formed the nucleus for many of our athletic teams. "Pork" is a good looking fellow and he has just discovered himself to be a lady's man. Paul's a fine pal and a friend of every one.

Faithful, good-natured, dependable, and conscientious, accurately describe this lady of quiet reserve, Faith Light, who came to E-town from Messiah Bible College. Diligent in the pursuit of the best in life, she possesses a deep religious fervor enhanced by a constancy of purpose.

Here we meet the "Deacon" of our class. With missionary outlook, a scientific mind, a romantic heart, an optimistic and cheerful personality, and a willingness to share a helping hand, he "deac's" with early Apostolic sincerity and effectiveness. Modest, intelligent, well-read, interesting, his practical emphasis discourages romantic adventure, yet whether in the laboratory, classroom, church, on the mission field, on a tractor, or some other ingenious and complicated mechanism his inventive mind and dexterous hands have created—regardless of his "field," Rufus will be an authority.

From the beautiful Lebanon Valley, Ira comes to us with a heart and soul of equal beauty. Poetry, music, nature, the best and beautiful in life, an unequalled sincerity, friends galore, offices of distinction—all are a part of Ira. A diligent worker and student, a consecrated and powerful preacher with a deep concern for the less fortunate (especially the negroes) having a cheery smile, an encouraging word, and a hearty hand-shake for all, Ira is one of those few who'll leave the world better than he found it.

"Posey" is an all-around E-towner. His jovial manner with a "hi-ya" for all, combined with his enthusiasm, energy, and industriousness, is bound to take him places. In athletics he is right on the front whether it be on the basketball court or on the open field. A celebration is one of the necessary requisites for every victory in which Posey is involved. We are confident he will have many victories in the future.

Junior Class History

— v —

ONLY three years ago we—and 25 more of us who have dropped by the wayside in the meantime—arrived, and hesitatingly (lest we violate “Frosh regs” or do something too presumptuous) made our way hither and yon about E-town’s campus.

Friendly greetings, I. Q. and achievement tests, a hectic week of social activities, followed recurrently by hikes, skating parties, swimming parties, outings, picnics, scavenger hunts, banquets, athletic thrills, and “lab work” for Family Sociology, were welcome interruptions to the assiduous search for truth, and speeded the passing of a trinity of years.

Under the reign of Stewart Kauffman (now a senior, far too mercurial for the rest of us), Goodyear (now proud poppa, bringing home the bacon), and Erma Bell (who took the helm when cupid snatched away Goodyear, and attainments made Kauffman soar to such great heights), our class prospered socially and scholastically. Despite the Selective Service Draft and Cupid’s arrows, and thanks to those who joined us this year, our Junior class is the largest ever.

Even though our Judgment Day has not yet arrived to give the final verdict, we, in advance, are proud of our contributions and achievements. Outstanding singers, scientists, athletes, soldiers, writers, intellectualists, linguists, politicians, historians, debaters, teachers, preachers, musicians, pacifists, social workers, and dramatic stars—all for whom the future shall hold much in store.

With great anticipation do we look forward to next year—our last year—with its uncertainties. It will be our best and greatest year, culminating with our being transferred into the fuller activities of a world challenging us to prepare to the fullest that we might give to it our best.

Sophomore Class History

— v —

ON A BRIGHT, late summer's day in 1940, a group of fifty college-bound young people wended their way to the rolling campus of Elizabethtown College. After a week of handshaking and getting acquainted generally, the class of 1944 settled down to its business of obtaining an education.

As the days turned into weeks and the weeks into months, the class began to make its influence felt as it assumed more and more campus responsibilities. Highlight of the first year was the Freshman banquet held at Aunt Sally's on May third.

Although our ranks were somewhat depleted as we began our second year, yet our role was none the less important. The now haughty Sophomores filled many a campus gap.

In athletics, the basketball team was aided immeasurably by the presence of Dean Taylor, Bill Pollock, and Carl Spence. In soccer Book Roth (a newcomer to our campus), Carl Spence, Kenneth Hetrick, Paul Hollinger, Bill Pollock, played a sterling brand of ball. In tennis Kenneth Hetrick and Galen Graham upheld the "44" banner.

The class of '44 also contributed much musical talent. Many of our members sang in the A Cappella Choir; as vocal soloists, Dorothy Seltzer, Paul Hollinger deserve to be ranked very near the top.

In dramatics the class contributed no less than ten members to the Sock and Buskin. Quite a few appeared in the latter club's production of "The Dust of the Earth."

Literary talent is not lacking in our class, as is evidenced by many of our classmates' articles in the Etownian each month.

During our Sophomore year there were many splendid social occasions. In the late fall we held a very successful banquet at Hostetter's Play Barn.

Our faithful officers during our two years, Stuart Goodwin and Kenneth Hetrick as president, Virginia Boyd and June Gilbert as secretary, Carl Spence and William Pollock as treasurer.

Thus have we the history to date of the class of '44. What the future holds in store we can only guess.

Freshman Class History

— v —

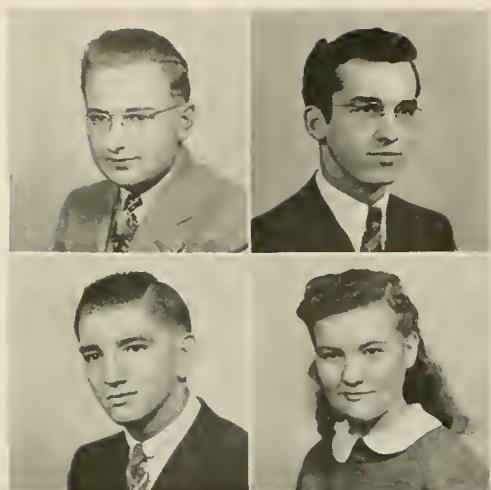

THIS fall, of 1941, forty-two inquisitive Freshmen appeared on the Elizabethtown College campus, to be greeted by a week full of social activities. There were teas every afternoon, and days were passed in getting acquainted and learning the rules of the college. During the later weeks, hikes, parties, a fall outing and such, entertained the students who were homesick and burdened with work.

After passing through the period of initiation, the “Frosh” lost their self-consciousness, and it was soon realized that their presence greatly enlivened the social activities and the other events taking place on the campus.

Merle Black, Edwin Boll, Donald Delancy, Wayne Schreiber, William White, and Harold Manifold immediately showed their talent by gaining positions on the soccer team. Later in the year LeRoy Reinhold, Merle Black, Edwin Boll, and William White played with the varsity Basketball team while Delancey, Schreiber, Melhorn, and Caba earned positions on the junior varsity squad. The girls have no lack of ability, either. Gladys Nyce, Hilda González, and Martha Chalk played with the girls’ Junior Varsity. The duties of athletic managers were awarded to Ira Gibbel, and Harold Manifold. The Freshmen were represented on the baseball diamond to no small extent. Tennis gives Bill White another star position.

The freshman talent is not confined to sports, but extends into high scholastic attainments, ministerial realms, and other social activities.

We firmly believe that just as our Freshman year was the commencement of our college life so are these achievements the beginning of the accomplishments of the Freshman class of 1945.

Boys' Varsity Basketball Team

— v —

THIS year's lads played hard against insurmountable odds. An entirely new team, but for Porky Leicht, met teams of high standing. Their spirit could not be broken and they fought on. Their record was not on the winning side but we can say with the poets "When that great Scorer comes to write against your name, it matters not if you lost or won but how you played the game." We can always be sure our boys will play a good clean game.

Girls' Varsity Basketball Team

— v —

THE Girls' Basketball Team did a fine job this year. They played tough teams and won 7, lost 3.

Though the girls get little publicity they sure do their bit. Here's hoping you may always win.

Baseball

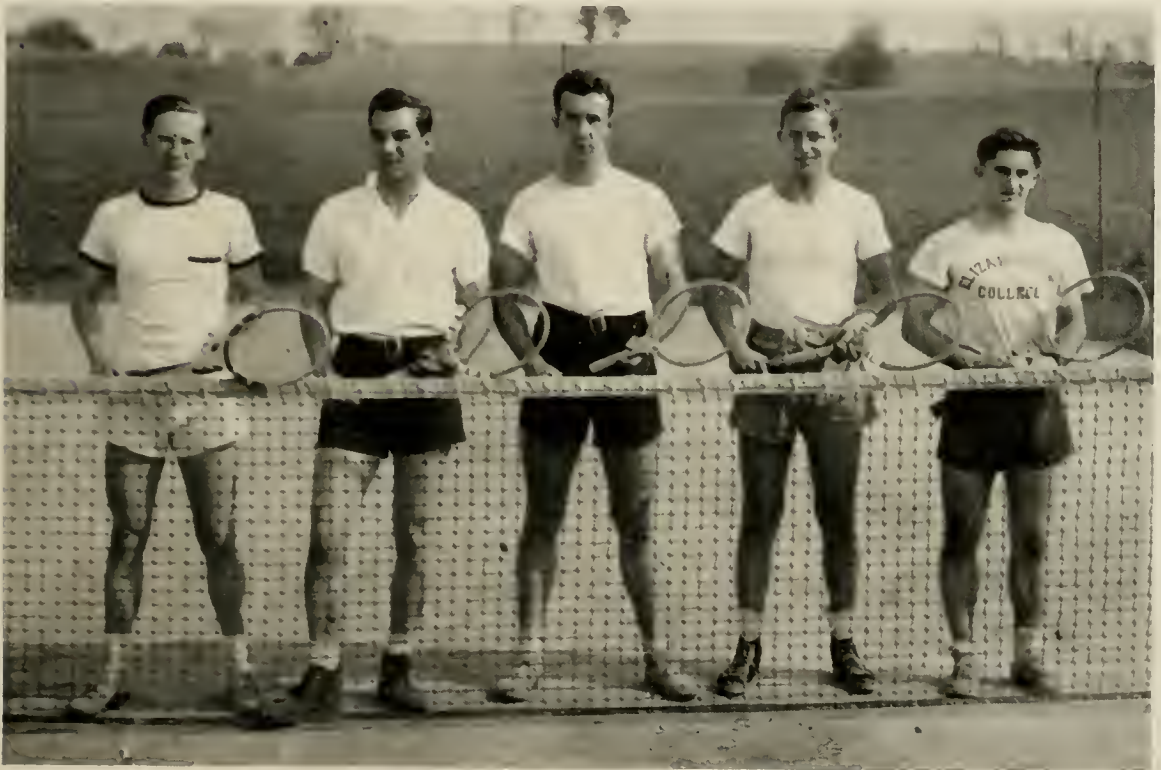

— v —

THE great American sport never is lacking on our campus calendar. The season has just begun, but we're sure (by the scores that have come in) that we'll have many wins.

Tennis

— v —

IT'S a little early to talk tennis but the time is nigh and the team is getting into shape.

We predict much success as we look over the components of the team.

Sock and Buskin

— v —

THE Sock and Buskin dramatic club of the college attempts to create opportunities for the students to adapt themselves to situations of the dramatic nature. It affords opportunities for students to appear before audiences and do their part effectively.

This year Dr. Schlosser took over the club. We all feel he deserves a lot of credit for the fine work he did.

The club produced "The Dust of the Earth" as its annual performance. It appeared to be a great success.

With the support of the new recruits, the future of the Sock and Buskin looks very promising. Here's the best of luck to you!

Commerciantes

— V —

THE club which attempts to make better business men and women has shown much progress in the few years of its existence. This year it held its first major social function. The club banqueted at the Harrisburger Hotel in the Appian Room. The affair was such a success that there are bound to be many more banquets scheduled.

Dr. Skene is the adviser of the club this year and a very successful adviser, to the club's way of thinking.

Orchestra

— v —

A NEW organization on campus, and a much needed one, is the orchestra. The college is proud to boast of its orchestra. Mr. Miller, supervisor of the East Donegal Township Music Department, is the director and is pleased with the progress. The musicians rendered several concerts in the gymnasium for the student body this Spring. We're anxious to hear much more from this body of talented students.

A Cappella Choir

— v —

FOR students interested in putting to use their appreciation of music the A Cappella Choir affords an outlet. This organization is one form of advertisement for the college. The organization travels to the churches of this vicinity and renders an entire service in song. These visits are a delight to the choir and seem to please the congregations, for the audiences grow larger with each successive visit. The choir has made all-day trips to Maryland and other congregations outside our vicinity.

This year's program has as its theme "The Eternal God." Among the renditions, the highlights are "Prayer" from Hansel and Gretel, "On Great Lone Hills," "Fairest Lord Jesus," "When Jesus Was a Little Child," "God Is a Spirit," and others.

For their annual production the choir is presenting "The Prodigal Son," by Henry B. Vincent.

Professor and Mrs. Meyer deserve a lot of credit for their faithful service to the choir.

Student Senate

— v —

THIS body is the ruling agent of the student association. It takes up all matters of importance to the students. It provides entertainment for the students over the week ends. The "Y" sponsors hikes, skating parties, swimming parties, Hallowe'en parties, St. Pat's party, socials, the annual Spring and Fall outings.

The Will of the Class of 1942

— V —

THE Class of '42, upon this sad venture of leaving the grounds where for four years experiences were shared with classmates and friends has one duty remaining.

One bright spot of this sad occasion is the privilege which we are now taking. We, on this 24th day of April, do solemnly draw up a will, thereby bequeathing to our successors, those things which we cherish most. The bequests follow:

1. To the Halls of Elizabethtown College the Class of '42 vacates numerous rooms to be used by other well deserving students. Also there will be left behind twenty-six seats in Chapel.
2. "Stu" Kauffman graciously hands over his "Evangelistic Ford" to Ruth Kreider.
3. Sue Bolton leaves her boisterous nature behind with Esther Evans.
4. Harry Berberian bestows his loquaciousness upon Robert Kingsbury.
5. "Herb" Burstein acquaints Rufus McDannel with his technique for cutting classes.
6. Sara Herr willingly gives up her friendship with "books" to Arlene Ziegler.
7. Kenny Shaffer leaves behind his "lab" coat for Ira Meyer's use.
8. Betty Grove leaves her lesson plans behind for "Bobby" Zoll.
9. Ritz leaves his corpulence with Lillian Wanner.
10. Ruth Shaw bequeaths her Southern accent to George Althouse.
11. Elwood Fauth leaves his similarity to Beau Brummel to Mark Ebersole.
12. Ruth Royer's bag of tricks will be left in Pauline Campbell's possession.
13. Oliver Foss has consented to leave his art tools behind with Romaine Weigle.
14. "Mel" Pollock does not object to Paul Leicht's using her medical knowledge from here on.
15. Alma Herr's baskets we leave to Emma Hackman.
16. William Gibbel will give Erma Bell the keys to the Commercial Activities on campus.
17. Ernest Lefever bestows all his stamp money on Lillie Mae Gumpher, who can make excellent use of it.
18. Henry Glade has consented to give up his journalistic tendencies to Harold Bomberger.
19. Hazel Hutchinson leaves her voluminous family Sociology notes to Joan Harries.
20. Rufus Double bequeaths his casual saunter to Harvey Kline.
21. Lois Anderson has consented to Cass Curry's occupying her jolly position on campus.
22. Martha Bucher leaves behind her proctorship to anyone who's willing.
23. Janet Boyd bequeaths her loyalty to Sock and Buskin's Motto, "Work 'Till You Bust," to Carroll Posey.

To those who were not specifically mentioned above, do not feel slighted, for yours is the privilege to take over anything not accounted for above.

To the professors we bequeath the honored privilege of writing recommendations for us from now 'till Doomsday.
